Sturgeon, Talbert Take Beth Daniel Junior Azalea

Charleston – Rain and potential thunderstorms didn't deter the field from trying to complete the final round of the Beth Daniel Junior Azalea. The boy's division managed to get through nine holes for a shortened 27 hole event. Due to safety reasons and the impending storms, the girls did not get to tee off and their event was shortened to 18 holes. The Country Club of Charleston is the home course of the event and has a tremendous history of talented membership that includes Masters Champion Henry Picard, storied amateur Frank Ford, Beth Daniel, and many others that have gone on to success in the game. Their support of amateur and junior golf is second to none in South Carolina.

Caleb Sturgeon and Damon Postal teed off tied for the lead in heavy rain with the goal of trying to hold on for nine holes. Sturgeon held on for a one stroke victory in the trying conditions. McKenzie Talbert took her first Beth Daniel Title with an opening round 69 and won her event by 4 strokes over Kathryn Miranda of Lexington after the weather conditions would not allow additional play for them. Players were selected based on their national ranking with the National Junior Golf Scoreboard and the SCJGA Heritage Classic Foundation Rankings. Over 200 players applied for the event that will be sure to grow with Beth's influence.

Beth has been a long time friend of the SCJGA and junior golf. The Beth Daniel Player of the Year award goes annually to the top female golfer in SC based on the Heritage Classic

Foundation Rankings. She has also been involved with the LPGA – USGA Link Girls to Golf Program and several other junior golf specific programs. She has won 33 times on tour, been on the Solheim Cup Team nine times, elected to the LPGA Hall of Fame in 1999, and elected to the World Golf Hall Of Fame in 2000. The Charleston native is also the 2009 USA Solheim Cup Captain.

Results will follow completion of play and will be posted on www.scjga.org.

Format: USGA rules apply, 18-hole stroke play.

Eligibility: Open to junior members of the SCJGA age 13-18, still enrolled in high school.
