Charleston –

The first round of the Beth Daniel Junior Azalea is in the bag as Zack Casto the overnight lead in the boy's division of play. The rising junior from Columbia had three birdies and a lone bogey for a two under 69. He leads by one over a trio of SC players that opened up at one under par. The girl's bracket has a shootout in the top as Louise Oxner and Jessica Hoang shot even par on their opening day. Three players as well are one stroke back at 72 including past Champion, McKenzie Talbert. The tournament was also treated to a special visitor as Meg Mallon was present for the first round. The four time LPGA Major Champion joined Beth in a sponsor's luncheon on Monday and was quickly put to work. Meg and Beth were placed in charge of the player revitalization committee. They rode the course in separate carts providing the players with iced towels to beat the low country heat.

The Country Club of Charleston is the home track of the event and has a tremendous history of talented membership that includes Masters Champion Henry Picard, storied amateur Frank Ford, Beth Daniel, and many others that have gone on to success in the game. Their support of amateur and junior golf is second to none in South Carolina.

Players were selected based on their national ranking with the National Junior Golf Scoreboard and the SCJGA Heritage Classic Foundation Rankings. Over 150 players applied for the event that will be sure to grow with Beth's influence.

Beth has been a long time friend of the SCJGA and junior golf. The Beth Daniel Player of the Year award goes annually to the top female golfer in SC based on the Heritage Classic Foundation Rankings. She has also been involved with the LPGA – USGA Link Girls to Golf Program and several other junior golf specific programs. She has won 33 times on tour, been on the Solheim Cup Team nine times, elected to the LPGA Hall of Fame in 1999, and elected to the World Golf Hall Of Fame in 2000. The Charleston native was also the 2009 USA Solheim Cup Captain.

Results will follow completion of play and will be posted on www.scjga.org.
