The Blade Junior Golf Classic- 36 holes of stroke play, Boys 13-18, Girls 14-18; 18 holes of stroke play Boys 10-12, Girls 11-13

Eligibility: Open to junior members of the SCJGA age 10-18, still enrolled in high school.

Stephen Behr got off to a hot start with a superb 5 under par 31 on his opening nine. A double bogey on the last hole left him at 5 under par 67 for the round and 5 under for the tournament. Cody Proveaux had an even par opening nine with two birdies and two bogies. A one over par 37 on his back nine left the overnight leader with a one shot deficit of Behr. Behr also won the SCGA Junior Championship in June, repeating the same feat as last year's champion; Caulder Moore. The girls division needed extra holes as Morgan Webber and Collins Bradshaw tied at four over par after 36 holes. Collins was only the second female player to successfully defend her title since Taylor Barrett in 2003 and 2004. Collins managed a two putt par on the first hole of sudden death to claim her title.

Trevor Phillips continued his tear on the boys 10-12 bracket. The Inman native fired a 3 under par 33 with a bogey on his last hole. His margin of victory was an impressive eight shots over Caleb Proveaux. The girls 11-13 competition was very close as Anne Taylor Hough needed a two putt par from 35 feet on the last hole. She ended up shooting a two day total of 73, one clear of her nearest competitor. All play is being graciously hosted by Green Valley CC as Thornblade Club is undergoing renovations this summer.

On Monday, July 12, the BK Bryan Junior Am took place at Green Valley with 29 teams taking part in the fundraising aspect of the Blade. At 5 pm, all of the contestants of the Junior Am and the Blade were treated to the annual Jay Haas clinic that has been one of the most popular facets of this tournament. Jay was joined by Brandi Jackson, Austin Reeves, and Crawford Reeves in a skills challenge modeled after the Big Break television show. Showing true championship form, Jay partnered with one of the younger juniors to claim the competition. The day also coincided with a par three shootout hosted by Crosswinds Golf Club with the top junior teams taking part in Jay's clinic. Through the auction hosted by Rick Erwin's Nantucket Grill and the BK Bryan Junior Am, $111,000 was raised for Children's Hospital, Camp Courage, and South Carolina Junior Golf programs.

In eleven years, the event has hosted some of the best competition in the state all the while raising vital funds in the process. This year's event marks a culmination of $460,000 being raised for Children's Hospital, Camp Courage, and programs of the South Carolina Junior Golf Association. Champions Tour Player Jay Haas, Event Chair Rob Reeves, and the rest of the Blade Junior Golf Committee have come together to provide a junior golf event that does way more than to define a champion.

Results will follow completion of play and will be posted on www.scjga.org.
